Dear Sirs;

I am in possession of a few very ancient European coins, some of them, I believe, were used during the epoch of Roman emperors.

Being impossible for me to ascertain their real derivation and present value,

I beg you to let me know if you can help me to find out what they are.

In case you are willing to do this very much appreciate favor, I will send to you the coins immediately -

Thanking you beforehand for your courtesy, I remain
Very truly yours,
Philip. Pope.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favour of December 5th, if you care to send to us the coins about which you write, we shall be glad to tell you what we can about them.

Very truly yours,

Curator
